

Deferred Assessment

Please be aware that if you have applied to graduate and are granted a deferred assessment your graduation might be delayed.

Deferred Assessment Requests:

Review the University Policy on Deferred Assessments - Section VIII: Associate Diploma Regulations and Procedures in the Diploma Program Calendar. www.uoguelph.ca/registrar/calendars/diploma/current/c08/c08-defpriv.shtml

Your request must include a letter explaining your case and supporting documentation for the Academic Review Committee. Submit your request to this Program Counselling Office. The deadline for your request is five working days from the missed examination/course work deadline. Contact our office if you have missed this deadline. Requests should be based on Medical, Compassionate or Psychological grounds. For definitions: <https://www.uoguelph.ca/registrar/calendars/diploma/current/c08/c08-ac-ac.shtml>. Decisions are made by the Academic Review Committee after the exam period ends.

For more information on requesting academic consideration, please refer to your Program Counselling website:

<https://oac-program-counselling.uoguelph.ca/current-students/academic-consideration>

If a Deferred Assessment is Granted:

On WebAdvisor, the notation "INC" will appear beside the course (in lieu of a numeric grade). If the request is granted, the notation will change to "DEF". Please check WebAdvisor before contacting the Program Counselling Office to see if your request was granted.

For Deferred Exams:

If you are granted a deferred exam an email will be sent to your U of G email account approximately three weeks into the following semester. For Fall Semester deferred exams are completed in February; Winter semester deferred exams are completed in June; Summer semester deferred exams are completed in October).

Dates of the deferred period are in the Diploma Program Calendar, Section III - Schedule of Dates:

<https://www.uoguelph.ca/registrar/calendars/diploma/current/c03/index.shtml>

The deferred exam schedule will be posted on the Registrarial Services website:

<https://www.uoguelph.ca/registrar/scheduling/examschedule> at least one week prior to the start of the scheduled deferred period. Please refer to it for the date, time and location of your deferred exam.

Courselink: Access to course material through Courselink may be temporarily interrupted at the end of a course, but access will be reinstated for those students granted deferred exams. Check access at least three weeks prior to the deferred exam date and report any access issues to CourseLink Support (courselink@uoguelph.ca) immediately.

For Deferred Conditions:

If you are granted a deferred condition you will receive an email to your U of G account approximately three weeks into the following semester with instructions to contact your professor immediately and set up a time to either write the necessary final exam and/or hand in a final assignment on or before the deadline date noted in the email from Registrarial Services (orsexams@uoguelph.ca).

If you do not have the information one week prior to the start of the scheduled deferred period, contact the Exam Coordinator at orsexams@uoguelph.ca . It is your responsibility to complete your deferred assessment on time.

If you have any questions please email your Program Counsellor at dtmpc@uoguelph.ca.
